

BREAD

and roses

Scan to learn more about the Workers' Opera

TIRED OF ALL WORK AND NO PLAYS?

Join the 2022 Workers' Opera!

Now Seeking Cast Members

It's not an opera—it's a performance written and performed by workers. A combination of theatre sketches, comedy, spoken word and music, the Workers' Opera is about the economic and social justice issues that impact working class people.

Who can participate?

Working class St. Louisans, both union members and those not represented by a union. No previous performing or writing experience is necessary! A team of professional theatre artists will help guide you.

Rehearsal begins August 1. Performances will be held at the Gaslight Theatre September 23-25. (Other performances may be scheduled later)

Cast members are compensated for their participation.

Interested? Contact Emily Kohring at director@breadandrosesmo.org or at 314-380-0174!